Dear [ ],

I wrote to you on 19 October 2023 to inform you that the Network was consulting with further third parties on some information before being in a position to come back to you by today.

Unfortunately, not all third parties have responded to our consultation and I am, therefore, not yet in a position to come back to you with a substantive response. I apologise for this delay. I will come back to you by 17 November with an updated response.

Yours sincerely,

Charlie Walton
Health Innovation Network Co-ordination Director
